

“HEART OF GOA BEATS IN ENGLAND!”

MELISSA D'SOUZA was invited and flown to England to play for the New Year's Eve 2004 Dance. The function was organized by Owen Pires, and held at Winston Churchill Hall in Pinn Way, Ruislip, Middlesex. The night was filled with a special elegance as each guest was treated to a glass of champagne upon their arrival and served a delightful variety of hors d'oeuvres. A sit down dinner initiated the evening at 8:00 p.m. Non-stop dancing took over by 9:00 p.m. to the live music and entertaining styles of Melissa D'Souza and Owen Pires. Live music was accompanied by a high energy disco for both young and old in attendance. It was 11:40 p.m. when the excitement for pre-countdown festivities began to build. The entire hall joined in singing oldies with lyrics displayed on a large screen for all to see. The countdown was brought in by a great display of bells ringing, a visual of Big Ben and a wonderful pyrotechnic presentation. Following the arrival of New Years festivities, Melissa D'Souza was re-introduced for a special performance; singing four tracks from her newly released CD "Heart of Goa".

The CD was well received by the goan community in England. Melissa felt extremely honoured and over-whelmed with gratitude for having been asked to be a part of such a special event. Her CD, HEART OF GOA continues to reach our goan communities both locally and worldwide. The CD HEART OF GOA, is a special project identifying the cross culture of sound, that is Konkani mixed with jazz, Rn'B, hip-hop and calypso. The album is filled with these influences and really speaks volumes of a new generation of goans.
